DeVry University
Keller Graduate School of Management
Career Seminar at our Merrillville Center
1000 E. 80th Place, Suite 222 (Twin Towers)
Tuesday, April 28, 2015

An opportunity for change...

Unemployed? Underemployed? Looking for a career change or just want to advance in your current career? DeVry University/Keller Graduate School of Management is hosting a Career Seminar on April 28th that you won’t want to miss! Attendees will learn about resume tips, social media as a job search tool, and have the opportunity to learn more about undergraduate and graduate degree opportunities. This is a complimentary event, so please RSVP to 219.736.7440 or dochall@devry.edu to save your seat and a friend’s today!

AGENDA

5:45pm - 6:00pm
Arrival & Check In Light Refreshments

6:00pm – 6:30pm
Resumes That Work!
Career Services
Our career experts will share tips and tricks to get your resume to stand out in today’s competitive job market.

6:30pm – 7:00pm
Social Networking as a Tool
Shelly L. Robinson, Center Dean
Social media skills are not only important to our social lives, but to our job search strategies too. Learn how and why a digital footprint may be helpful during the job hunt!

7:00pm – 7:30pm
Success Stories from the Field!
Alumni Panel
An alumni panel will share recent experiences and successes with their job search and transition to the workplace as a result of their education.

7:30pm - 8:00pm
Trending Careers
Marshall Hall, Senior Advisor
Learn about trending careers and how your success can begin with a degree in as little as three years or how you can advance in your current career with a graduate degree.